TRISHA LIM

Hello! I'm Trisha from Brunei, I studied at a British School since the age of 3 and later moved to the UK to study my law degree. I'm here in beautiful Taiwan to do my Masters, and hope to move here permanently after graduating! Some of my hobbies include restaurant-hopping, , reading and swimming, so I'm very excited to visit the islands around Taiwan soon. I hope that by joining this program, I can help as many of you feel more confident speaking in English. I'm looking forward to meeting you all soon! 😊

HENNER LEITHÄUSER

Hi! My name is Henner, I am a 30 years old German PhD student at the NTU School of Forestry and Resource Conservation. My research here in Taiwan often requires me to travel to many different places to work closely with local people growing edible mushrooms under the forest canopy. In my free time, I am all about nature and the outdoors. Mostly I enjoy hiking, surfing and beach volleyball. I am also a big fan of hot springs!

APRIL HILL

Hi! My name is April, and I'm originally from the United States. My background is in nutrition, and I am currently a second-year master's student in the Global Health Program. I love to travel, and I have had the cool opportunity to explore South America during my undergraduate years. In Taiwan, my favorite activities include trying new restaurants, sightseeing, and hiking. Some day, I hope to hike to the top of Jade Mountain. I also enjoy playing board games with friends and watching my favorite shows, including Kim's Convenience and Psych.

NATHAN THADEO YOASHI

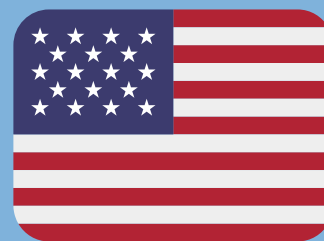

My name is Nathan Thadeo Yoashi. I grew up in a lower-income family living in an extremely countryside village in Kigoma-Tanzania. I came to Taiwan in October 2017 where I joined my bachelor's degree in International Program for Sustainable Development, at Chang Jung Christian University. Graduated and joined the master's program at National Taiwan University and apply for the Ph.D. program up to now. I am currently pursuing my Ph.D. in the Graduate Institute of Environmental Engineering at National Taiwan University. Usually, I've learned to cherish all the opportunities to meet more people and explore new possibilities and ideologies.

LAMBERTO LAUENGCO

Hello! Lambert Lauengco here! I'm a 2nd year MBA student from right here in NTU, and I came here just about a year ago from the Philippines! I love a lot of things about Taiwan, but the best part of this adventure has definitely been the people I've met along the way. I enjoy hearing people talk about themselves, and listening to them talk about their passions. I love hearing different perspectives, and I take joy in knowing that everyone comes out of the conversation a little better than before. Come and exchange some stories with me!

VALENTINA WIESER

My name is Valentina and I am an international PhD student from Austria at the department of Chemistry. I joined the Chemical Biology Division at NTU last year after I graduated from Vienna University of Technology in Physics and later Biomedical Engineering. I grew up in Vienna surrounded by a lot of historic buildings, vineyards and a rich music scene. Having started my 2nd year of PhD studies I spend a lot of time in the laboratory but I like to balance that with spending as much time outside as possible.
